

10.6 (Math $\rightarrow$ ) Samples and Populations

Population - an entire group of people or objects

Sample - PART of the population

Unbiased Sample (Fair or Random) - representative of a population. It is selected @ random & large enough to provide accurate data.

Biased Sample (NOT fair) - NOT representative of a population. Parts of the population are favored over others.